Court Awards

Girl $425,000

A Jackson, Ala., teen-aged girl was awarded a $425,000 judgment in federal court here today as a result of injuries suffered in an amusement ride accident at the Greater Gulf State Fair Oct. 19, 1968.

U. S. District Judge Daniel H. Thomas entered the judgment in favor of Nina Singleton, who was 17 at the time of the accident, as a result of a settlement of a million dollar suit. The father of the girl, N. E. Singleton, was awarded a judgment for $43,000 in connection with the medical expenses incurred in the treatment of his daughter who suffered permanent injuries.

The settlement was against Allen Herschell Division of Liska-Savory Corp. of Buffalo, N. Y., manufacturers of an amusement ride known as the "Flying Bobs," and Century 21 Shows, Inc. of Birmingham, Ala., operators of the device.

Attys. Robert Cunningham and Richard Bounds represented the Singletons. Atty. James J. Duffy Jr. represented Century 21 Shows. Attys. Paul Brock and Don Pierce represented Lisk-Savory.
